About Myself

This is Md. Julhas Biswas. I have completed a B.Sc. in Electrical and Electronic Engineering from East-West University, Dhaka. After graduation, I worked as a teaching assistant at East-West University. Later, I worked as an Instructor at AIET, a Private Engineering College in Dhaka. Recently, I have earned a position named "Non Cadre Gazette Officer". I joined on 29th January as a Junior Instructor (Lecturer) at Faridpur Polytechnic Institute (Govt. Engineering College). Although I am an Electrical Engineer, I like coding and I am also a Web Developer. Freelancing is my other profession and I dream of starting a business in IT in the future. Punctuality, Politeness and Forgiveness are the most important things for me. In the end, I believe in hard work and Taqdeer.

My Philosophy

I try to follow Islamic rules and regulations. I will never let my wife job. I am looking for a partner who has the mentality to mingle with my family, must wear a burqa when travelling, stays away from apps like TikTok, avoids stinginess when donating to someone, and has a straightforward mindset.
